

IN NORWICH FIFTY YEARS AGO

The epidemic among the horses in Norwich has reached a stage where care service had to be abandoned, and local dealers using horses give up trying to make deliveries.

The epidemic and political talk held Norwich people in 1872, and with the news the files of the Bulletin tell of other happenings of fifty years ago in part as follows:

Monday, Oct. 28—On Sunday night September 15th James Morgan of Thompson with another man visited the Dan Tavern, kept by Frank McMillan, a short distance from Putnam. A dispute arose and as Morgan was leaving the building he turned and was spoken by the keeper and McMillan pulled a pistol and shot him. McMillan immediately fled but word has been received that the murderer has been arrested in Chicago by Sheriff Osgood of Windham county who followed him there after the murder.

Church-goers were disappointed yesterday when many of the cars were forced to abandon their runs because of the spread of the epidemic among the horses. This morning two cars were out but it is expected that they will soon be victims of the disease. Nearly twenty horses at Greenville are laid up with the disease, no hacks are seen on the streets and there is a marked decrease in the number of teams used today.

At the close of the morning service of the Second Congregational church yesterday, a letter was read from Rev. M. G. Dana, tendering his resignation to the church.

The formation of albums of autumn leaves is now the popular feminine work. The work of laying the second track at the Stonington & Providence road has been commenced at the Stonington end of the line.

Tuesday, October 29, 1872—James H. Lewis has been for a long time engaged in the grocery business on Water street, has removed to Bridge street and has embarked in the same business there.

Mr. Bromley had a large audience at Broad Hall last night, an audience composed equally of republicans and democrats, for although Mr. Bromley spoke as a Greeley backer, he is too well known for either party to him, even although his story was dry to many who listened.

The Second Congregational church at a meeting have requested Rev. Mr. Dana to withdraw his resignation, and Mr. Dana has agreed to remain at the past.

The Greenville Tanners, with the field officers of the first regiment and the rank and file of the second regiment last night and paraded the principal streets. They were afterwards handsomely entertained at one of the company boarding houses.

Several intoxicated women at Montville became involved in a dispute and one of them was so badly beaten that she was insensible for some hours and is now in a precarious condition.

The ladies of the East Main Street M. E. Church after a silver sideboard service valued at $50 to the captain of the Tanners or Woodchoppers receiving the most votes. Rivalry is sure to run keen in this contest.

Several local people have had visions of panning gold in the palladium, since the announcement that a Colorado miner has struck gold in the part of New York. The average gold yield is said to be $40 a ton, running to $720 a ton.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Alfred Reneau and Joseph LaPiere, who were caught in the raid at the Colburn place Monday night and who were fined $50 and costs each were unable to raise the amount and were taken to the Tolland jail Wednesday. Murie Balsarene, the leader of the gang, who was fined $50 and costs was released Wednesday and was released. Ludger Bartholme, the owner of the property, and the man who rented the cellar for $50 a month, was also released upon the payment of his fine and costs amounting to $114.42.

With the exception of a women's meeting by the Women's Republican club there have been no political rallies in Stafford this fall. There seems to be general apathy on the part of the two major political parties. Whatever interest there is seems to be purely local and is centered on the candidates for representatives. The nominees on the republican ticket are Joel H. Rogers and Mrs. Myra Mix and the democratic candidates are P. J. Murray, who has been tax collector for several years, and Daniel Avery, a son of former Representative Myron P. Avery.

Rev. John Wilkinson and Arthur J. Melbourne were in Hartford Tuesday.

John Maurice has sold a small tract of land in Stafford village to Edward Jacobson.

LEDYARD

The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church held their annual meeting for the election of officers in their room at the parsonage on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. William I. Allyn was elected president; Mrs. Millie Gray was elected vice president; Mrs. S. E. Holdridge was elected secretary and treasurer, and the following directresses were elected: Mrs. Fanny Clark, Mrs. Gertrude Main, Mrs. Henrietta Finck, Mrs. Josephine Burton, Mrs. Charles Geer, Mrs. Elizabeth Gray, Mrs. Charles Geer and Mrs. Charles Gray have held the office of president and secretary, respectively, since 1918.

Arthur D. Barrett left on Wednesday for Philadelphia, where he will be employed as foreman for the American Bridge company. Mr. Barrett does not expect to return home until Christmas.

The regular missionary meeting was held at the parsonage on Thursday afternoon. Miss Nellie W. Geor, the president, presiding. Mrs. W. I. Allyn and Miss Lillian Gallup sang a duet; Rev. Mr. Goodenough offered prayer, and Rev. A.

SMOTHERED BY GAS IN STOMACH?

Dyspepsia, indigestion, bloating, heartburn, sour, sick, gassy stomach. Made Well—No Secret.

Nothing makes you more miserable than that awful smothering feeling, gas pressure around the heart, with choking, gagging, extreme nervousness, palpitation, sharp pain. Food simply won't digest; but sour, forms gas, fails to assimilate. The system isn't nourished. Soon you become worn out, tired, listless and life is a bore. The natural action of GOLDINE Tonic and Nerve on the digestive organs means real health.

You have no more indigestion, difficult breathing, burning in the throat, drowsiness after eating, nervous, anxious feeling, bloating, fullness or gnawing, empty feeling at the pit of your stomach. You eat what you want when you want it—food melts and tastes good—because GOLDINE both relieves and prevents stomach distress. Stop doctoring with charcoal, soda, iron and other harmful minerals that foul your stomach. Take the real natural herb remedy GOLDINE, which strengthens the nerves so the stomach secretes its own digestive juices. That's the secret. GOLDINE makes the stomach itself well, and so builds you up. Again you are cheerful, happy, healthy. Isn't it easy? Just get a bottle of GOLDINE today at Engler's Broadway Pharmacy, Norwich, where GOLDINE Remedies are being demonstrated by special representative, and try GOLDINE, faithfully.
